

Charges Cong Uses Terror to Rule

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
PARIS (AP) — U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman charged the leaders of North Vietnam today with ruling "through terror and butchery" and said they should give their people a little freedom.

Harriman also told newsmen as he entered the 15th meeting of the Vietnam peace talks that he intended to denounce North Vietnam for failure to live up to the 1962 agreement to neutralize Laos.

Harriman made the accusation against the North Vietnamese leaders when asked what he thought about recent jail sentences given by the Saigon government to critics or opponents.

"Have you seen any freedom in North Vietnam, in Hanoi?" Harriman responded.

"It would be a great thing for Hanoi to give a little freedom to the people there," he continued.

"They impose their will through terror and butchery and so it's rather ill becoming for them to make any comment about freedom in other parts of the world."

Harriman told newsmen that "the North Vietnamese never kept the 1962 agreement (on Laos) for one day."

"One of the ways to make peace in Southeast Asia on a permanent basis," he said, "is for North Vietnam to leave its neighbors alone."

North Vietnam's chief delegate, Xuan Thuy, who has been slightly ill recently, did not attend today's session of the talks. His chief deputy, Col. Ha Van Lau, headed the delegation.

on the outskirts of Saigon in which South Vietnamese troops said they killed seven enemy soldiers, captured six and seized 18 weapons and large quantities of ammunition.

Northwest of the capital, American strategic bombers flew their 50th mission in seven days against suspected North Vietnamese troop concentrations near the Cambodian border.

Eight missions totaling 40 of the big B52 bombers dropped 1,200 tons of bombs Tuesday and today on enemy positions 30 to 60 miles northwest of Saigon.

The equivalent of about 250 of the B52s have attacked suspected enemy base camps during the last week in the three western provinces of Hau Nghia, Tay Ninh and Binh Long, which form a triangle near the Cambodian border.

With each bomber carrying 30 tons of explosives, they have dropped about 7,500 tons of bombs in this comparatively small area.

Grocers Set to Accept Food Coupons

Families with U.S. Department of Agriculture food coupons to spend will find retail grocery stores scattered through Hempstead County ready to accept them like cash.

This was announced today by Mrs. Marie McEvoy, in charge of the Consumer Food Programs field office, USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service, Texarkana.

She said most food retailers have applied for authorization to accept these coupons.

With nearly all county food retailers in the program, patterns of trading should continue as usual, she explained.

"Remember," she emphasized, "that USDA food coupons can be spent only for food, so don't get upset with your grocer when he doesn't accept coupons for soap, matches and other household needs. Although such items are sold in most grocery stores, they are not food."

You can buy almost any food you want, Mrs. McEvoy pointed out, as long as that food is produced in the United States. One of the purposes of the USDA Food Stamp Program is to help U.S. farmers sell more of the food they are producing. Also, the Food Stamp Program is designed to give low-income families more food-buying power so they can improve their diets and thereby improve their health and well being.

The program is operated jointly by the Arkansas Department of Public Welfare and USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service. It replaces the distribution of USDA commodities to needy families in Hempstead County but USDA-donated foods will continue to be available to schools and non-profit institutions.

ing, "I would hate to see rousing of hatred among our people."

Fulbright, 63, who emphasized his senatorial seniority, faces another stern test in the Nov. 5 general election against Charles T. Bernard, 40, of Earle, who was unopposed for the Republican nomination.

Bernard, father of five, farms and operates a dry cleaning business. His only previous public service came as a city alderman.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, the state's first GOP chief executive since Reconstruction, indicated that Bernard would have the all-out backing of his organization. The apparent drive to give the state its first Republican senator in 100 years follows by two years Rockefeller's own triumph helped Rep. John Paul Hamerschmidt become the first Arkansas Republican congressman in a century.

Most of the criticism of Fulbright was on the war issue, but Hayes, making a plea for the Negro vote, was critical of Fulbright's votes against the Vietnam War, Civil Rights legislation and Medicare.

Hayes' total was considerably higher than most political observers had expected.

Clear, Calm Weather to Prevail

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Clear and calm weather that prevails over Arkansas today is expected to give way to turbulence tonight or Thursday as a cold front moves into the northern portions.

Lows reported this morning ranged from 73 degrees at Harrison to 70 at Little Rock.

The only rainfall reported around the state in the 24-hour period ending at 7:30 a.m. today was 0.02 inches at El Dorado.

Lead Poisoning

The ancient Romans wrote on lead, coined money out of it and even ate off it, and the result was often lead poisoning. Inhaled, consumed or absorbed through the skin, lead accumulates in the body and results in weakness, cramps and anemia.

After 68 had enjoyed a meal prepared and served by Chapter 328, Order of the Eastern Star, they heard Mr. Glascock give a message of special interest to the women present.

The topic, "The Women of the Bible," was illustrated with verbal sketches of the Mothers of Nations, Eve, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah. He spoke of Potiphar's wife who tempted Joseph, Pharaoh's daughter, who saved the baby Moses, cruel Jezebel, wise Deborah, scheming Delilah, and lovable Ruth and Esther.

"There are two theories of the universe, Chance and Purpose," he said in opening remarks, "and the individual is the basis of society." The speaker was introduced by Harry Silver, local secretary of the Scottish Rite, who also welcomed those from Nashville, Tenn., Nashville, Ark., Lewisville, Blevins, and Hope.

No Special Significance Over Edict

By JACK R. MILLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pope Paul VI's birth control edict is not expected to have significant impact on the U.S. government's broad and costly family planning programs, say informed sources in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Past experience has shown that most poor women, including Roman Catholics, are eager to obtain means of birth control, these sources say.

"Many are desperate to control the size of their families," said a well-placed source. "They otherwise have one baby every year, and that keeps them in poverty and it's bad for their health."

The source said that men, from the Pope down, "have always speculated on the moral and theological issues, but it's the women who bear the babies — and they make the final decision."

HEW declined official comment on the Pope's encyclical released Monday forbidding Catholic women to use birth control pills or any other mechanical means of contraception.

No figures are available on the number of Catholics among women eligible for family planning services under federally supported programs. But officials say Catholics probably comprise a distinct minority.

HEW officials point out, however, that there are sizeable concentrations of Catholics in low-income brackets; Puerto Ricans and Mexican-Americans.

Mrs. Katherine B. Mettinger, HEW's deputy assistant secretary for population and family planning, noted in an interview that predominantly Catholic Puerto Rico has pioneered in family planning programs and they have been extremely popular. But, she said, "It's too early to tell how Catholic women will react to the Pope's statement."

The federal government provided about $28 million in birth control services last year.

President Johnson has asked for $56 million for the current fiscal year. Indications are that Congress will grant only part of the increase.

In another reaction to the Pope's pronouncement, 87 Roman Catholic theologians announced Tuesday in Washington that they were opposed to it and that they believe Catholic couples should use birth control techniques according to their own conscience.

"As Roman Catholic theologians, conscious of our duty and our limitations," they said, "We conclude that spouses may responsibly decide according to their conscience that artificial contraception in some circumstances is permissible and indeed necessary to preserve and foster the values and sacredness of marriage."

Income-to-Food-Ratio

In just two years, the amount of time required to bring home the bacon has declined five per cent.

To explain that another way, the purchasing power of increased incomes has more than offset food price changes. This does not apply to farm income which has not yet moved back to where it was in 1949.

Murphy Reports on Earnings

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — C. H. Murphy Jr., president and chief executive of the Murphy Oil Corp., reported Monday that the firm showed net earnings of $1,772,000 for the quarter ended June 30.

Murphy said the earnings amounted to 33 cents per common share, including extraordinary income equal to 17 cents per share.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

HONOLULU (AP) — "I'm the guy those boots were made for walking on," cracks Tommy Sands, and the night club audience shares his rueful humor.

Most of the nightly visitors to the Outrigger Hotel ballroom understand the significance of the remark. Singer Sands is the ex-husband of Nancy Sinatra, who achieved success of her own with the man-taunting "These Boots Are Made for Walking." ("and one of these days these boots are going to walk all over you.") During his new night club act, Sands refers to his marriage and to onetime associates Dean Martin and Sammy Davis but avoids mention of his former father-in-law, Frank Sinatra.

It's all done with a light touch, and the Walkiki audiences applaud Sands' patter and his professional way with a song. What they don't realize is the underlying drama of the singer's return to show business.

Sands himself talks little about the past, and particularly about Hollywood, where he found little happiness. He is more concerned about the future — and Hawaii.

"Ever since I first came here in 1957, I felt this was the place where I wanted to be," he remarked as he sat bare-chested in his dressing room after his first show of the evening. "Every time I returned here, I realized that the people were warm and genuine. And so in May of last year, I gave up everything to come here and live."

"Throughout my career, the thing that gave me the most satisfaction was writing. I wrote songs and I sold them, but I also wrote poetry and movie scripts which I didn't sell. I realized that if I was to get anywhere with my writing, I would need to educate myself—I never even graduated from high school. So I got myself a tutor and I earned my high school diploma. Then in September I will enroll at the University of Hawaii in an English course, and I intend to stick with it until I get my master's degree."

This is a curious turn in Sands' career, but then, his career has defied formula. New York-born, he started singing at 6, left high school to go on the road, and six months later appeared on television in a play, "The Singing Kid." A movie version followed, and Tommy Sands became one of the bright young singers of the post-Presley period.

His marriage to Nancy Sinatra helped his fame. But Sands was disturbed by whispers that his career had been aided by his famous father-in-law.

After the divorce, Sands seemed to drop out of sight. His transfer from the hurly burly of Hollywood to the relaxed atmosphere of Hawaii appears to have made him a happy man.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Situation comedy, out of style and out of favor with network television program makers for the past few seasons, is making a comeback next season.

There are seven new series of the genre on the schedules of the three networks. And a lucky swing of the programming cycle returns them at a time when fierce physical action and gunplay is, if not taboo, at least radically modified.

Television series are usually under construction for one or two years before the public gets its first look at a show, so most of these were on the drawing boards long before the public and the networks began worrying about shoot 'em ups and their suspected effects on tender or disturbed minds.

On the September docket are CBS' "Doris Day Show," the popular film star's first excursion into television. She plays a former band singer, a widow with two children, adjusting to rural life. There is also NBC's "Julia," with Diahann Carroll playing a widowed registered nurse with child. Other nonviolent comedies include CBS' "Blondie," based on a comic strip; ABC's "Ugliest Girl in Town"; NBC's Fantasy, "The Ghost and Mrs. Miller"; CBS' "The Good Guys," and ABC's hour-long "Here come the Brides," a period piece set in the Northwest lumberjack country.

Second most popular category for new shows is action, mostly police or private eye action. The five shows include NBC's "The Outsider," in the mood of those old Raymond Chandler private eye books; ABC's "Mod Squad" and CBS' "Hawaii Five," both working the police beat; NBC's "Adam 12," which will handle a pair of squad car cops in the manner of "Dragnet"; and NBC's major effort, the 90-minute "Name of the Game."

Two new variety shows will be added to the growing list—NBC's "Beautiful Phyllis Diller Show" and the off-beat "That's Life" on ABC which will attempt a weekly book musical built around a cast of regular performers playing continuing characters.

There will also be two new Westerns, CBS' "Lancer," and ABC's "Outcasts."

ABC will replace a science fiction series, "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea" with another, "The Land of Giants," the only new entry in that category. And it will also add one semi-game program, "The Don Rickles Show," in which the emphasis is on comedy rather than oneupmanship. ABC also has the sole anthology series of the season, "Journey to the Unknown," with different plot and performers weekly.

CBS' inspection of Negro participation in athletics and music were the subjects of the Tuesday night documentary in its "Of Black America" series.

The program opened with a survey of various sports and a statistical report by narrator Harry Reasoner on the amount of black participation. Negro athletes commented. The subject has been widely and thoroughly explored in print recently and the television report added little.

A PRACTICAL ARRANGEMENT
Dear Helen: Will you please help us convince our mother that if you can't have cream, milk is better than nothing.

She has never been what you'd call a loving wife. Oh, she's done her duty by Dad, and she raised three kids well, but she was more interested in keeping a perfect house than enjoying us. We don't blame her for this — it's just her way.

The more self-centered Mother became, the more Dad concentrated on business, though he always had time for us when we were home. Though there wasn't much between them, I think he was true to her. That is, until about three years ago. Then he met Marilyn, who — I hate to say it — was all our mother wasn't, and he fell for her.

He sees her about once a week, but he doesn't want to break up his marriage of 28 years. His attitude, is, "Why not? My wife doesn't want me; Marilyn does, with no strings attached. In return for my name, everything she wants, plus good social standing, my wife should give me time off to be a man."

When Mother found out, she took to her bed with a threatened nervous breakdown which didn't come off. Then she announced she was getting a divorce and would smear Dad's name so badly he'd lose his executive position.

Well, Dad's company is really his life. He says he'll give up Marilyn, though he still thinks he was justified. Today

Marilyn helped matters along by announcing her engagement to another man.

But Mother is determined. She wants revenge. She thinks she'll be happy living alone and glorying in her triumph, when actually she'll be eaten up with self-pity. Without her lovely home and her country club and wives' groups, etc. she'll be lost.

How can we make her see it's best for everyone if they stay together? — THREE GROWN CHILDREN

Dear Three: It might be practical, convenient, safer for everyone, including you three nervous children, if this marriage hung together. But it won't be "best" for your parents unless they make it more than a distasteful business arrangement.

Urge your mother to visit a marriage counselor before she sees a lawyer. If he can't show them both what's wrong and where to right it, then perhaps they should try a trial separation — which would give them time to think. — H

Dear Helen: What is your word for mothers who bring their children to baby showers and let the chicks win prizes? — THE CHICKS

Dear Chicks: Nix! — H.

Those Non-Food Items

Remember when you went to the grocery store to buy just food? Now you purchase everything from baby bibs to socks, from cosmetics to mops, including lawn chairs, plants and recorders. It's estimated that about 20% of that "food bill" is for non-food items, another factor that makes food seem so high.

Gibson's String Is Broken

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Gibson, who's been dealing almost exclusively in zeros for two months, shrugs off an occasional odd number on the scoreboard.

Tony Cloninger hardly can afford the luxury of a shutout string. Gibson's latest shutout string was severed at 23 innings Tuesday night but the St. Louis ace breezed past the New York Mets 7-1 for his 12th consecutive victory.

Meanwhile, Cincinnati's Cloninger, whose next shutout will be his first in two years, blanked Philadelphia on three hits for seven innings but had to settle for relief help and a 5-2 victory that sent the Reds into second place in the National League.

Cloninger, acquired from Atlanta in a trade last month after an injury-plagued 1967 flop with the Braves, failed to give the distance for the 17th time in as many starts this season.

Pittsburgh swept a two-night doubleheader from Atlanta 8-5 and 5-4 in 10 innings, dropping the slump-ridden Braves from the runner-up spot to third. Los Angeles edged Houston 3-2 and the Chicago Cubs trampled San Francisco 10-4.

In the American League, Detroit blanked the New York Yankees 5-0; Baltimore whipped Boston 8-3; Cleveland drubbed Washington 10-1 and Oakland defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-1.

Gibson checked the Mets on five hits, including a run-scoring double by Ed Kranepool in the fourth inning, in boosting his season mark to 15-5. Eight of his victories have been shutouts and he has allowed just three runs in 101 innings since June 2.

With an earned run average of 0.96, the 33-year-old fireballer is zeroing in on Grover Cleveland Alexander's all-time ERA mark of 1.22, set in 1915.

The Cardinals made it a cakewalk for Gibson Tuesday night by striking for five runs in the fourth inning, with Julian Javier's two-run single the key blow. The league leaders' 23rd victory in 29 games this month gave them a 14-game bulge over the Reds.

Rookie Johnny Bench cracked his ninth homer as Cincinnati staked Cloninger to a 5-0 lead over the floundering Phillies. But Tony Taylor opened the Phils' eighth with a single, then kicked the ball out of Woody Woodward's hand as the Cincy shortstop tried to start a double play on Roberto Pena's grounder. When Cloninger got behind Johnny Callison 2-0, Manager Dave Bristol yanked him. The Phils went on to score twice against Clay Carroll before the reliever nailed Cloninger's third victory in nine decisions.

"Though he kept his pitches well under control, at the end he lost it," said Reds pitching coach Mel Harder of Cloninger's near-miss. "It's almost spring training for Tony since he hasn't pitched much this year or last year. It will take him a while to catch up."

It was the Reds' fourth straight victory and the 12th setback for the Phils in their last 13 games.

The Pirates extended Atlanta's losing string to five games when Matty Alou scampered home from third in the 10th inning of the nightcap as the

Unassisted Triple First in 41 Years

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer

Ron Hansen of Washington pulled off the first unassisted triple play in the major leagues in 41 years, but it didn't take the Cleveland Indians long to get over it.

After falling victim to Hansen in the first inning Tuesday night, the Indians went on to build up an 8-0 lead by the end of the fifth en route to a 10-1 breeze over the Senators.

"It was an easy game—after we got eight runs ahead," joked Cleveland manager Al Dark.

The Detroit Tigers and Baltimore, who had no problems with triple plays, also had easy times as the American League race remained at the status quo.

Detroit rolled behind Earl Wilson's hitting and pitching to a 5-0 victory over the New York Yankees after the Orioles used six runs in the seventh inning to bomb Boston 8-3 in the afternoon.

The Tigers still lead the Orioles and Indians by seven games.

In the only other game, Oakland halted the Chicago White Sox' four-game winning streak with a 3-1 triumph.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs outscored San Francisco 10-4 in the afternoon, and at night St. Louis tumbled the New York Mets 7-1, Cincinnati beat Philadelphia 5-2, Los Angeles edged Houston 3-2 and Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Atlanta, 8-5 and 5-4 in 10 innings.

Hansen got Cleveland off to a bad start after Dave Nelson singled and Russ Snyder walked in the first inning. Joe Azcue lined to the shortstop, who stepped on second to double Nelson, and then tagged Snyder coming from first base on the hit-and-run.

Only seven other players have accomplished the feat, the last two in 1927 when shortstop Jim Cooney of the Chicago Cubs and first baseman Johnny Neun of Detroit did it.

Frank Howard gave Washington a 1-0 lead in the second with his 30th homer, but the Indians recovered by the fourth inning when Lee Maye slammed a two-run double.

Cleveland added six more runs in the fifth as Jose Cardenal doubled in three and scored on Maye's single. Cardenal drove in another run in the seventh and Sam McDowell coasted to his 11th victory in 20 decisions with a six-hitter.

Wilson was the big man for Detroit. He and Dick McAuliffe hit consecutive homers to open the third inning against Mel Stottlemyre, 13-8. The big right-hander gave up only three hits before Daryl Patterson relieved when the first hitter in the ninth walked. Patterson saved Wilson's ninth triumph against eight losses.

Brooks Robinson broke a scoreless tie for Baltimore with a two-run single in the sixth inning and singled in another marker in the seventh.

Jim Hardin, 13-6, stifled the Red Sox on four hits until Jose Tartabull singled in the eighth, Carl Yastrzemski doubled him home and Ken Harrelson whacked his 24th homer.

Sal Bando singled in a first-inning run for Oakland after Bert Campaneris singled and stole second and third, and then Bando broke a 1-1 tie in the fifth with another single after Rick Monday tripled. Campaneris knocked in the final run in the sixth with another hit.

Chuck Dobson, 8-11, with relief from Jack Aker in the eighth, got the victory.

All-Stars Underdogs by 16 Pts.

By JERRY LISKA

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The College All-Stars, a 16-point underdog, has a potentially hot passing attack going for them against the mighty Green Bay Packers in the 35th All-Star football game Friday night.

Overall, the pros hold a 23-9-2 margin in the Soldier Field spectacle started in 1935. The last time the collegians won was in 1963 with a 20-17 shading of the Packers.

In other recent upsets, the All-Stars triumphed 35-19 over the Detroit Lions in 1958, after previously winning in 1955, nipping the Cleveland Browns 30-27, and—five seasons earlier—in 1950, by 17-7 over the Philadelphia Eagles.

If Norm Van Brocklin, former Minnesota Viking coach, is to make a successful All-Star coaching debut Friday night, his quarterback duo of Gary Beban of UCLA and Greg Landry of Massachusetts probably will have to blaze away as successfully as Wisconsin's Ron Vanderkelen did in the 1963 derailling of the Packers and Michigan State's Jim Ninowski in the 1958 trimming of the Lions.

Beban and Landry, both highly regarded pro prospects for the Washington Redskins and Lions respectively, seemingly have the grab-and-take-off receivers to cause the Packers trouble.

It was Vanderkelen's 74-yard pass play with Badgermate Pat Richter which beat the Packers in 1963. In the 1958 All-Star triumph, Ninowski's shots to fleet Bobby Mitchell of Illinois demoralized the Lions.

Beban, the Uclan's Heisman Trophy winner, probably will get the starting call against the National Football League champions, but Van Brocklin also is expected to use the rangy, sharpshooting Landry as much to keep aerial pressure on the Packers.

Trav Youths Hurl Double Shutouts

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Harry Parker and Santiago Guzman, a pair of 19-year-old right-handers, pitched a double shutout as the Arkansas Travs beat the Amarillo Giants 1-0 and 3-0 Tuesday night in Texas League games.

It was Parker's first win in six decisions and Guzman ran his record to 11-5 by winning the nightcap 3-0.

Parker pitched a two-hitter in the opener and Leron Lee drove in the game's only run when he singled home Boots Day in the third.

In the second game, Lee gave Guzman a cushion by again singling home Day in the first inning. The Travs added two more in the fourth.

SALINAS, Calif. (AP) — One world record fell Tuesday as 300 archers from the United States and Mexico shot through the first day of the National Field Archery Association Championships.

Mike Palmer of Houston shot an 888 in the Open Class A Bowhunter Division to better the 885 set last year at Jackson, Miss., by Chuck Ingram of Dallas.

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Big Lama, a 6-year-old chestnut stallion from Sweden, accepted an invitation today to compete in both the $50,000 Gotham Trot and $50,000 United Nations Trot at Yonkers Raceway Aug. 15 and Aug. 22, respectively.

Track Star May Miss Olympics
STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Gaston Roelants, Belgium's track star, may not be able to compete in the Olympic Games at Mexico City in October because of an injury to his knee.

He has also been the hottest hitter in the American League, staying at or near the top in all batting departments: homers, runs-batted-in, average.

"I paid the price, as they say," Harrelson puts it. "When I went to spring training, I concentrated on nothing but baseball, gave up golf, running around, only had a couple beers at night."

"Now I don't hold grudges, but I've received a great amount of satisfaction from my success, particularly after Gil Hodges wouldn't play me at Washington and Charlie Finley didn't want me around at Kansas City."

He has also enjoyed monetary success. "The day after Finley fired me," he recalls. "I thought to myself, 'Well, you've done it again.' But the phone started ringing and I knew I'd be all right. The main reason I came to Boston was their reputation for being concerned about their players. When I was on the trading block the club officials let me know and told me which stories in the papers (about deals being worked out) were true and which ones weren't. They even asked me which team I would prefer if I was traded. That's fabulous. I would almost sign a blank contract for that kind of treatment."

Almost, but not quite. The Hawk realizes his potential marketing value, just as Yastrzemski did last year when he formed Yaz Enterprises. Harrelson Enterprises, thus far, is comprised of an insurance and travel agency.

Harrelson, the epitome of self-confidence, believes the Red Sox will again win the pennant.

"If Boomer Scott (George) starts hitting and Jean-Claude (Jim) Lonborg gets hot, we'll be in there," he says. "Everybody else is doing a fine job. If Rico Petrocelli had my confidence, he'd be one of the best to ever play the game."

"As for me, I'm just swinging the way you're supposed to swing... with the elbows and wrists and not so much with the body. I wish I could just send my elbows and hands to the plate and leave the rest of me in the dugout. I'd be a helluva hitter."

Golfing Clan Says Palmer About Ready

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The pro golfing clan is saying Arnold Palmer is about ready to win a big one.

So, this is notice that Arnie's Army can start warming up its cheers. Arnie, Tom Weiskopf, the leading money winner, and defending champion Jack Nicklaus are favorites in the 65th Western Open starting Thursday.

Historic Olympia Fields just south of Chicago—where such greats as Walter Hagen, Bobby Jones and Tommy Armour once matched shots—is well adapted for siege gun hitters like the favored trio.

The greens are true and hold like fly paper; you can let out the shaft on most of the fairways "although drives" will feel quite spotting because of some narrowness and traps; and there are a lot of out-of-bounds hazards and enough trees to start a lumber camp.

The north course stretches 6,749 yards with a 35-36—71 par. The late Lawson Little set the official course record of 65 during the 1940 U.S. Open qualifying trials.

If Julius Boros' putter remains hot, the old codger again could be the surprise package. He recently became the oldest player ever to win the National PGA—age 48. Until then, Jerry Barber, 45, had held that niche.

Weiskopf tops the money list with $137,061. He has won the San Diego and Flint Open, has been second twice, third three times and fourth once.

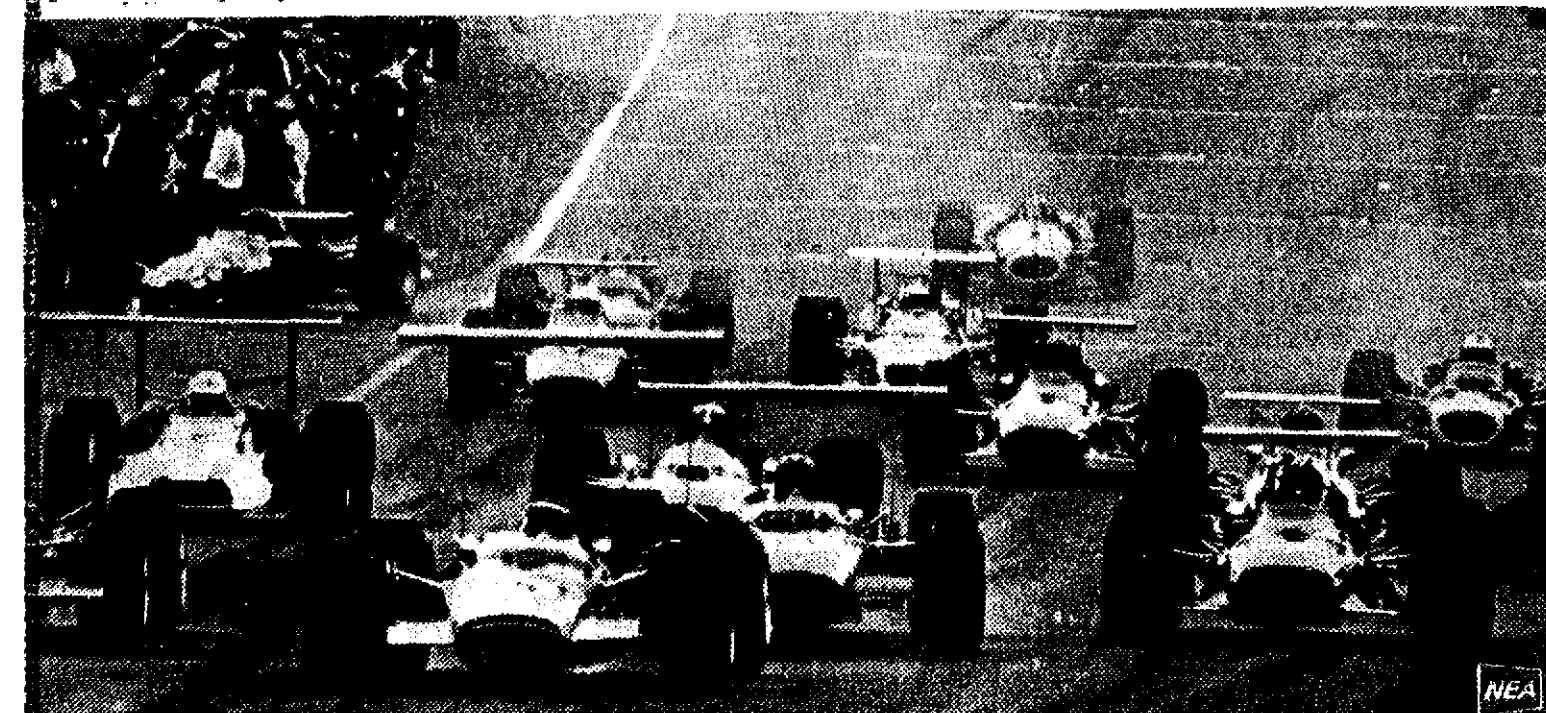

Billy Casper, the second leading money winner and Western Open champion in 1966 and 1965, is not entered.

The Western carries a $130,000 prize list with its biggest winning jackpot of $26,000.

Disorders on Race Front Have Eased

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Racial disorders slackened considerably Tuesday night in Gary, Ind., Peoria, Ill., and Seattle, Wash., which had been troubled by disturbances.

Richard G. Hatcher, the Negro mayor of Gary, reported "all is quiet" after a personal night tour of the city. Police reported scattered gunfire and rock throwing in two districts where youth gangs roamed the streets. No injuries were reported. Two youths were arrested for curfew violations.

Peoria had its quietest night of the week with vandalism and rock throwing virtually absent in the wake of a 9 p.m. curfew on the city's teenagers. The Illinois National Guard had been put on alert but was not called out.

In Seattle's Negro district, two policemen suffered minor injuries during disorders, but authorities noted they were far cry from Monday night's disturbances when eight patrolmen and two Negro youths were injured.

About two dozen persons, most of them juveniles, were arrested and eight adults were booked on charges of assault. In one four-block area, police used tear gas to break up milling street crowds. Some windows were broken in a junior high school. Several fire bombs were thrown but most failed to ignite, police reported.

Juveniles Cause Poles Trouble

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Lt. Col. Kazimierz Baszak, head of the juvenile division of the Polish police, has reported that his office investigated 66,100 juvenile crimes last year, 4,500 more than during the previous 12-month period.

Alexander in Runoff for Congress

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bill Alexander of Osceola won an Aug. 13 runoff spot in the race for the Democratic congressional nomination in the 1st District while two candidates struggled today for the other runoff position.

Jack Files of Hunter and Clyde Andrews, mayor of Marianna, were in a close contest for the No. 2 runoff spot.

With 463 of 531 precincts reported, Alexander had 25,498 votes, with Files getting 11,246 and Andrews 9,861.

The winner of the runoff will face Guy Newcomb of Osceola, the Republican nominee unopposed in the GOP primary, in the Nov. 5 general election.

Lower down on the Democratic primary roster were: Dr. Ralph Ration of Paragould with 10,848, Lee Ward of Jonesboro with 6,812, Henry Atkins of Wynne with 5,949, Eugene T. Ridgeway of Newport with 4,299 and Carroll Durham with 636.

Alexander, 35, an attorney, was the first to file for the congressional post being vacated by Rep. E. C. "Took" Gathings, D-Ark., who is retiring after 30 years as a congressman.

He took the lead midway during the returns Tuesday night and his vote total rapidly outdistanced his nearest rivals.

Should he survive the runoff, the congressional race would be between two Osceola residents. Newcomb, 36, a druggist, has been classed as a supporter of 1964 GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

Atkins, 35, principal of Childress High School at Wynne, sought to become the first Negro congressman from Arkansas, and it had been speculated that his strength would be considerable since an estimated 40 per cent of the voters in the district are Negroes. Among the items in his campaign platform were the "suffocation of poverty" and "better and increased housing."

Files, a native of DeWitt, also is an attorney. He was administrative assistant to former six-term Gov. Orval E. Faubus in 1960, became an aide of Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., for three years, and later was a legislative assistant to Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark. Files is 35.

Andrews, 44, was elected mayor of Marianna in 1960 and won his subsequent terms without opposition. An accountant, Andrews was president of the Arkansas Municipal League in 1964, and he boasted that under his administration Marianna had blacktopped every street in the city and was in the process of doubling its water and sewer systems.

Ward once was a Chancery Court Judge at Paragould and in a race against Gathings two years ago he drew 40 per cent of the vote. Ridgeway was convicted years ago of embezzlement while delinquent tax collector in Jackson County, a crime which was the basis of a state Supreme Court decision which ejected him from the 1966 race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Husband's Yen for Old Ferry Making Travel Very Time Consuming

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — It is about 200 miles between New York and Washington, and some motorists can make the trip in as little as four hours. It takes us 10.

That's because husband has a yen for taking ferryboats. If there isn't a ferry where we are going, we go where there is a ferry.

Thus on a recent trip to the nation's capital we disdained the direct mode of travel via turnpike and expressway in our eternal pursuit of a ferryboat route.

Instead we traversed the entire coastline of New Jersey, all the way down to Cape May where, by diligent map study, my would-be sailor had located a ferry that took us from New Jersey to Delaware. It was only a roundabout trip of some hours before we reached our destination.

En route to Florida we always drove down to the tip of the Delmarva Peninsula, from which point we were waterborne in slow splendor across Chesapeake Bay. When they built the 17-mile-long Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel a few years ago and eliminated that ferry, what others regarded as an engineering marvel my husband regarded as a personal affront.

The next time we went down that way we traveled a couple of hundred extra miles in order to take a ferry he had discovered in Wilmington, N.C.

There is always some heated debate between us as to whether the ferries he has ferreted out are seaworthy. I always take the negative.

On one occasion we rode a vessel so tiny that it resembled a raft. It was so small it wouldn't even hold the car, but that didn't deter my determined spouse. We left the family vehicle behind and went to an island and back just for the ride.

When we do manage to get the car onto a boat, I am always convinced that we are going to drive straight into the water when we leave it. Actually there is not much danger of this as my chauffeur is usually not even at the wheel when we make landfall. He always insists on getting out, no matter how short the trip, to view the passing scenery and is usually not back by the time the chains are down and the attendants are motioning impatiently for the car to move.

Each time my husband reads that a new bridge is being built and an old ferry is being dropped, he reacts as though a favorite uncle had died.

Outwardly I commiserate with him, but inwardly I smile. I'm all for progress.

McGovern Is Rallying RFK Backers

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George S. McGovern has emerged as a rallying point for some supporters of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy—but mainly to influence the Democratic party position on Vietnam.

The South Dakota Democrat, an outspoken war critic, said in an interview he has rejected suggestions that he actively seek the presidential nomination at next month's Democratic National Convention because of his own hard re-election race.

"But I have told them if they want to use me as a rallying point, that's okay," McGovern added, observing that "this will give a little more leverage at the convention."

It was for this reason that he went to California last weekend to discuss the convention, and especially its platform, with Kennedy supporters.

He called on them for a moral commitment to "passion and action in the service of the nation" and implied that neither Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey nor Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, the party's presidential contenders, could do this.

McGovern, however, made it plain he will support the party nominee.

When asked whether a dark horse such as he might wind up as the nominee, he said this is "a very, very unlikely event."

He did say he would accept a nomination, adding that "anyone in politics who gets as far as the U.S. Senate who says he wouldn't accept the presidential nomination is crazy."

McGovern said he will probably ask to testify before the convention's platform committee on both farm and Vietnam policy, and added he will work at Chicago to organize delegates to try for "the strongest possible plank on Vietnam, to improve our chances in November and to line up with the mood of the country."

In his Los Angeles speech, he indicated he thought the platform should admit the errors of the Johnson administration's policies.

"I am convinced," he said, "that any president with the will to do it could end the war in Vietnam on terms acceptable to the American people in 60 days."

"It is imperative," the senator went on, "that we nominate a standard-bearer who can run with a clear mind and conscience on our party's platform. That is why I have declined to endorse the candidacy of an old and dear friend—the vice president."

Then, in apparent criticism of McCarthy, McGovern attacked "those—some of them candidates for high office—who cannot seem to detect the urgency of the warning, cannot see the bush that has been burning these many years."

"They think American is tired; that it is time to relax; that we need not action and passion but cool philosophy," the senator said, adding "as Robert Kennedy said so often, that is not the road history has marked for us."

McGovern has been designated South Dakota's "favorite son" by the 26-vote delegation Kennedy captured just hours before his assassination. In addition, over 200 of more than 700 undecided Democratic delegates, including the 174 from California, are believed to be Kennedy supporters.

As for the 46-year-old McGovern, a college professor before entering politics, he still intends to devote most of his energy to his second-term fight against former GOP Gov. Archie L. Grubbs.

According to the Bible, Adam lived to the age of 930.

Humphrey Jabs at Congress, Johnson

By HARRY KELLY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey today jabbed at both the Johnson administration and Congress in charging not enough has been done to combat hunger in the nation.

Humphrey, returning from a four-day campaign swing in California in his quest for the Democratic presidential nomination, said the nation needs "a strong president."

Humphrey's remarks were prepared for a National Association of Counties meeting.

He said neither Congress nor the administration—specifically the Department of Agriculture—had done enough to combat hunger in the United States.

"It is immoral to allow some babies to suffer from malnutrition while others in our population are concerned about the dangers of overeating," said Humphrey, and he added:

"Let me be perfectly candid — neither Congress nor the United States Department of Agriculture have made an adequate response to the severe problems of hunger and malnutrition we know exist in America."

Humphrey said there was no reason for anyone to be hungry in an land of "unequalled wealth and agriculture productivity."

The Humphrey campaign hopes to get a retelling of dollars at a $500-a-plate dinner tonight in Washington.

Humphrey and his aides have acknowledged campaign money problems, Humphrey said Tuesday that the pinch had forced a cancellation, at least temporarily, of some advertising.

However, Humphrey is known to be watching over the money raising machinery himself and expects the situation to be eased if not remedied once the conventions are over. In addition, aides hope that tonight's affair will bring in as much as $1.5 million.

Humphrey, in talking to the county officials, said the new problems of government, local as well as national and often overlapping, require a reshaping of existing institutions.

"We need a strong and active trumps and his own king before leading another club.

West's best play would be to take the ace of clubs and throw South in dummy with another club, whereupon South would lead a diamond from dummy and finesse either the queen or 10. It wouldn't matter. West would be on lead and have to play away from his remaining diamond honor or lead a club to give South a ruff and discard.

Both declarers made the mistake of leading a spade to the queen at trick three and taking the double diamond finesse at trick four. Each West player was on lead with the jack and showed that their defense was up to world's championship form. Each led his jack of trumps.

Each South was in his own hand and could do no better than to lead a club to dummy's 10. This left the declarers in dummy at the wrong time. The best they could make was to try the finesse of the diamond queen. West had the second defensive trick with the king and it was a simple matter to take the third trick with the club ace and let East make his 10 of hearts in the cool of the evening.

Some Thoughts on Federal Deficit of 25 Billions

More than 30 years ago when the second Franklin D. Roosevelt administration began a deliberate buildup of the federal debt in peacetime and your editor was slashing away at the most popular man of our day, a Hope citizen advised me I was unduly worried about the climbing debt.

"That's something the rich boys will pay—it'll never get down to folks like us," the local oracle told me. I objected on the well-known grounds that we pay all the taxes of the people we buy from, the newspaper and my farmer friend did business every day with rich suppliers—therefore that climbing federal debt would sooner or later reach us in higher prices and higher direct taxes. The higher prices began almost at once, and now we are finally beginning to feel the direct tax "bite," a 10 per cent surcharge on federal income taxes.

My friend didn't live long enough to learn the fallacy of his pronouncement of 30 years ago. It was his misfortune to believe everything the Washingtonians told him instead of sticking to the pioneer American habit of figuring out the truth for yourself. Our forefathers so distrusted Government that they wouldn't take paper money but demanded gold and silver. Later they dropped their guard, and now there's so much paper money in circulation that the prices of everything of real value have gone sky-high.

Nor have we yet reached the end. This morning you read that the federal deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1968, is 25.4 billion dollars. We lost that much in a single year's operation of Government in peacetime.

And yet the total deficit for World War I—fiscal 1918 and 1919—was only 22.4 billions! That's the measure of the financial hole America's people have plunged her into.

Look for still higher prices and new and still more crushing taxes—unless you disown the Washingtonians who misled you 30 years ago and now are required to keep up their misrepresentation in order to remain in office.

Arnold Wins Over Denman by 303 Votes

Incumbent Bill Denman of Prescott was defeated by W. H. (Dub) Arnold of Arkadelphia for the office of prosecuting attorney in the 8th judicial district. Denman carried three of the four counties in the district but Arnold's home county, Clark, gave him an overwhelming margin.

Living Cost Shows Sharp Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of living paced by higher mortgage interest and other home ownership charges, jumped one half of one per cent in June to a level 4.2 per cent above that of a year ago, the government announced today. The June rise equaled that of February 1966 and was larger than any other since September 1962 when the index went up six-tenths of one per cent. The rise in consumer prices was relatively steeper than that for wholesale prices which increased two-tenths of a per cent in June, raising them 2.3 per cent above a year ago.

Czech Talks With Russia Promising

By HANNS NEUERBOURG Associated Press Writer PRAGUE (AP) — One of Czechoslovakia's leading Communist reformers reported today that the crucial talks between the Soviet Politburo and the Czechoslovak party Presidium are taking a "promising course."

"The atmosphere is optimistic," said National Assembly Chairman Josef Smrkovsky in Rude Pravo, the Czechoslovak party newspaper.

The leaders of the two parties met for the third day today for the martial accompaniment of record Soviet military maneuvers. The talks continued at least one day longer than expected as the Soviets sought to develop evidence of discord among the Czechoslovaks.

Mississippi Hikes Taxes

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Gov. John Bell Williams has signed a bill to increase the state sales tax from 3½ to 5 per cent. Another bill boosts the top bracket of the state income tax from 3 to 4 per cent and eliminates the 2 per cent bottom rate. The two tax increases are expected to bring in $77 million to $83 million every two years to finance teacher pay raises.

Bids for New Housing Project

TRUMANN, Ark. (AP) — The Housing Authority here will accept bids at 2 p.m. Aug. 15 for a new 30-unit housing project. The project also will include a community center building and administrative and maintenance wings.

90 Enemy Killed by Americans

By GEORGE ESPEY Associated Press Writer SAIGON (AP) — A task force of armored American gunboats, helicopter gunships and South Vietnamese marines plunged deep into the fertile Mekong Delta to raid a Viet Cong base camp. Field reports today said at least 90 of the enemy had been killed and the action was continuing.

The Vietnamese Marines reported seizing an arsenal containing 62 weapons, 423 mortar rounds and more than 12,000 rounds of small arms ammunition.

The only allied casualties reported were two South Vietnamese wounded. The assault was made Tuesday 92 miles southwest of Saigon, along a tributary of the Cai Lon River 34 miles east of the Gulf of Thailand.

A military spokesman said it was the first allied penetration of the area of the southern Mekong Delta which has been dominated by the Viet Cong for years.

The allied commanders "had good information they would get some action down there," the spokesman said.

Most of the damage to the Viet Cong apparently was done by the U.S. Navy's 60-foot Monitor gunboats and by armored troop carriers after the Vietnamese marines had cornered the enemy in a bunker complex. U.S. Army helicopter gunships also raked the enemy positions with machine guns and rockets.

About 1,000 U.S. infantrymen from the 9th Division, swept through another area about two miles to the east but reported little contact.

Elsewhere, only light, scattered skirmishes were reported. They included three small fights

Feild Beats Strech for Legislature

Hempstead County Democratic voters split their ballots fairly well except in a couple of state races. It was no contest for Mrs. Nancy Hall in the race for treasurer and it was a runaway for Frank Holt for supreme court justice.

In the governor's race Crank led the ticket with 1,593 votes, Johnson ran second, with 1,117 and the other candidates were also rans. Wells edged Kofelt by about 300 votes in lieutenant governor's contest.

Senator Fulbright had a commanding lead all the way.

The close contest in the county was in the representative race. Incumbent Talbot Feild Jr. and Arthur Strech were neck and neck right down to the wire. Strech's strength appeared in rural boxes but when the Hope boxes started to come in Feild took over the lead and maintained it throughout. Feild finally won by 277 votes.

Hempstead gave a majority to Prosecuting Attorney Bill Denman who was beaten by W. H. Arnold in the district by 303 votes.

In the Republican primary it was no contest. Governor Winthrop Rockefeller polled 129 votes and his opponent got only one vote.

For constable in DeRoan Township Ruel H. Betts defeated Terrell Ingersol 1,341 to 1,181.

In Bols d' Arc Township (Fulton area) Wayne Marcum defeated M.D. Clayton.

Trussell to Report on Europe Trip

Rev. Gerald Trussell will show slides and give a report of his trip to Europe at the First Baptist Church this coming Sunday evening at 7:00. This will be at the regular worship hour.

The Rev. and Mrs. Trussell recently visited Germany, Austria, Italy, France, Belgium—Holland, Switzerland, Luxembourg and England. The public is invited to see these slides and hear his report. They are in color and will be of interest to those attending.

One Cast Two Ballots

SPRINGDALE, Ark. (AP) — The secretary of the Washington County Republican Committee said Tuesday that a person had voted in both the Republican and Democratic primaries. James Hurley of Springdale said he had turned the matter over to Deputy Prosecutor Richard Wells.

Wells said a warrant for the arrest of the person would be issued if the allegations were true.

Union Wins, Steel Firms Hike Prices

By DOUG BAILEY Associated Press Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The U.S. Steel Corp. announced today changes in its tin mill product prices—increasing some and decreasing others — only hours after agreement was reached on a new steel industry labor contract.

U.S. Steel, the nation's biggest producer and often the pace-maker in domestic steel prices, said the new prices will take effect Oct. 1 and will remain in effect until April 1, 1969.

Tin mill products are used mostly for the production of cans for beer and other carbonated beverages.

Of the 83 million tons of steel shipped by the industry in 1967, tin mill products accounted for 6.6 million tons.

Hammered out in a month of secret negotiations, it was narrowly approved over strident objections Tuesday night, barely a day before a strike deadline at the end of the old agreement.

It will add between 90 cents and a dollar to the wages and benefits of the nation's 450,000 steelworkers. First estimates calculated the package as an increase of 6.5 per cent or better in each of the three years.

The big question now is: What will happen to the steel industry, which has insisted that a 6 per cent annual hike in labor costs would wipe out two-thirds of its profits and put some companies out of business?

Steel executives, who said repeatedly during the winter that price increases would be necessary after the new labor contract, now are refusing to answer questions.

Senator Fulbright Is Renominated; Crank Leads Governor's Race

53 Per Cent of Votes Go to Senator

By ED SHEARER Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., won renomination in Arkansas' Democratic primary Tuesday against three foes who urged voters to wrest the office from him because of his stand on the Vietnam war.

In his sternest campaign test in 24 years, Fulbright received about 53 per cent of the vote, ample enough to save him from a runoff but short of the 65 per cent he predicted he would receive.

His opponents accused the Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman of giving aid and comfort to the enemy because of his outspoken opposition to U.S. involvement in the war.

During an intensive two-month campaign, Fulbright told voters his opposition to the war was aimed at "stopping the killing of our men and to bring them home to their families where they belong."

With 2,597 of 2,680 precincts reported, Fulbright had 209,722 votes, Jim Johnson, an evangelistic political orator and self-styled segregationist, 126,570, Bobby K. Hayes, a flooring manufacturer from Calico Rock, 48,783, and Foster Johnson, a music publisher from Little Rock, 11,383.

Fulbright issued a brief victory statement shortly before 3 a.m.

"It is difficult at this late hour to find the right words to express appreciation for help in the campaign which is obviously successful," Fulbright said. "It is not easy to carry a majority over three candidates."

Without elaborating, the senator said people's emotions were aroused in time of war, adding:

2nd Spot in Runoff Real Cliffhanger

By BILL SIMMONS Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller easily won Republican renomination in Tuesday's primaries. Marion H. Crank led the Democratic ticket, but was headed toward an Aug. 13 runoff with his foe not yet determined.

Continuing returns today showed Ted Boswell, 35, an attorney from Bryant, and Mrs. Virginia Johnson, the slender, dark-haired wife of the party's 1966 gubernatorial nominee, waging a close battle for the No. 2 spot on the runoff ballot.

Governors Race:

With 2,645 of 2,680 precincts reported, Crank has 105,241 votes, Mrs. Johnson 85,345 and Boswell had 84,780. The other Democratic candidates were in this order: Bruce Bennett 64,185, Frank Whitbeck 60,494 and Clyde Byrd 11,371.

Lt. Governor:

With 2,638 of 2,680 precincts reported, Wells had 146,954 votes, Coffelt 74,962, Julian James of Jonesboro 66,933, W. M. "Bill" Herndon of North Little Rock 48,296 and James Gilbert Leigh of Little Rock 34,077.

State Treasurer:

With 2,639 of 2,680 precincts reported, Mrs. Hall had 231,481 votes and Henslee 103,441.

Supreme Court:

With 2,638 of 2,680 precincts reported, Holt had 248,866 votes, Chancellor Lawrence Dawson of Pine Bluff 78,089 and Chancellor Thomas Butt of Fayetteville 61,205.

Rockefeller won a smashing victory over his GOP primary foe, Sidney Roberts of Little Rock, who was fired from his salesman's job the day after he filed for the race. He had been employed by an Oklahoma firm.

"I'll have to start looking for a job," Roberts cracked Tuesday night as the Rockefeller vote tide mounted against him.

In the Republican primary, with 330 of 331 precincts reported, the vote was 26,579 for Rockefeller to 1,187 for Roberts, who evidently got little response to his call for Democrats to forsake their primary to vote for him on the GOP side. He said such a cross-over vote would be a short-cut method of beating the state's first GOP governor since Reconstruction.

Results of Races in State Districts

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock, who had charged that supporters of gubernatorial candidate Marion Crank had placed an opponent in the race against him, swept to an easy victory in his re-election bid to the Arkansas House Tuesday.

Cockrill, 43, who is speaker of the House, defeated former Rep. J. H. Cottrell Jr. of Little Rock 32,354 to 11,928.

Cockrill's re-election was to Pos. 8 in District 22, which is Pulaski and Perry counties. His victory was in the Democratic primary. He has no Republican opposition.

In the two contested Democratic races for the Senate, one incumbent won the Democratic nomination but another lost.

Sen. Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff received 10,023 votes to defeat George N. Holmes of Pine Bluff who had 7,581, according to complete but unofficial returns.

Nelson was seeking Pos. 2 in the District, 20, which is Jefferson and Lincoln counties. Nelson will face Republican Lloyd Sims Jr. of Pine Bluff in the Nov. 5 general election.

Sen. Cecil McNeil of Rector, who first served in the Senate in 1961, was defeated in his bid for re-election in District 23 by Burrell Thompson of Paragould 6,072 to 5,948. Thompson, however, must face Republican Paul Payne of Paragould in the general election.

Rep. Hayes C. McClerkin of Texarkana, a candidate for speaker of the House, won re-election to Pos. 1 in District 39, which is Miller County.

McClerkin defeated former state legislator Jack Clark of

Lindsey and Reagan Join GOP Writers

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Two Republican stars—Ronald Reagan and John V. Lindsay—descended on GOP platform writers today with contrasting calls for 1968 party planks.

For the California governor, whose hat is in the presidential ring at least as his state's favorite son candidate, the accent lay on firm defense against communism abroad and sound finances and law and order at home.

"About one issue there should be no confusion," Reagan said, "Prevent the expansion of communist power. It is time to tell friend and foe alike: we are in Vietnam because it is in our national interest to be there."

And "here at home," he said, "we must recover the will necessary to make our streets safe, our cities free from violence and our campuses centers for learning rather than for outrage and insurrection."

For the New York mayor, who says he's for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and not himself as president, the stress was on reforms to cure city ills and poverty at home and on flexible diplomacy abroad.

"We can begin by writing a vigorous platform that affirms the humane and financial commitment described by the Riot Commission; a commitment that this (Johnson) administration has scorned," he said.

"It is time to make good the promise of American democracy to all citizens."

On Vietnam, Lindsay said "the Republican party should assume forthright leadership of the cause of ending this unwanted war on the other side of the world."

And U.S. diplomacy, he said, should recognize that in a changing world, relations with Russians and Chinese are not "fixed forever in an unalterable pattern."

Reagan and Lindsay spoke in separate, prepared statements as the Republican Platform Committee neared the end of open hearings on the party's policy document for this campaign year.

On Thursday the group plans to start closed plank-writing sessions amid indications that despite some disputes here and there, the drafters can agree on a platform acceptable to any of the candidates.

Rep. Charles E. Goodell of New York, a key Rockefeller backer on the committee, said "obviously if they turn back to the 19th century in the platform there will be a fight." But he did not think such a battle would develop.

Reagan said he was not getting into specifics, which sometimes cause controversy. "I have intentionally today talked in some generalities because I believe our party should be bound by principles, not just details," he said.

Both Reagan and Lindsay—who were separated in their scheduled morning appearances by an intervening foreign policy witness, former Ambassador to Mexico Robert C. Hill—joined in stiff assaults on the Democrats.

Reagan accused the Johnson and Kennedy administrations of weakness in foreign affairs, of allowing U.S. military might to slip, of squandering of federal dollars and allowing riots and insurrection.

Aid Bill May Help Release the Pueblo

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has approved an amendment to its foreign aid bill which sponsors say could help gain the release of the USS Pueblo's crew, but which critics term "a cruel hoax... silly and meaningless."

The amendment was added by a 43-29 vote to the pending $1.94-billion bill Tuesday.

It would withdraw, until North Korea releases the 82 crewmen seized last January, presidential authority to make exceptions to an existing law barring U.S. aid to Communist nations.

The President can authorize such aid, if he thinks it vital to U.S. security, if the recipient nation is not controlled "by an international Communist conspiracy" and if the aid would spur the receiver toward independence from the Communist bloc.

The aid authorization has been cut more than $1 billion below President Johnson's requests.

Proposals to restore some of the funds for aid to underdeveloped countries were given little chance of success in today's session in the face of the current economy drive in Congress.

Sen. Peter Dominick, R-Colo., sponsored the Pueblo amendment. He said the State Department had done nothing thus far to obtain release of the crewmen "except ask for their return."

"It is time we exercised some pressure," he said, predicting his approach would pressure Communist countries dealing with North Korea to seek release of the crewmen.

But acting Chairman John Sparkman, D-Ala., of the Foreign Relations Committee, argued the amendment was a WISE OLD BIRD knows the answer to instant navigation, but will it tell? Using a computer and a grant from the Office of Naval Research, a Bowling Green (Ohio) State University mathematics professor is endeavoring to discover how pigeons navigate in the air. The birds are observed in flight, both from the ground and at times by following them in helicopters. The recorded data is then processed in an IBM computer to plot performance averages as well as spot any deviations in the bird's flight pattern. Since a pigeon's uncanny navigational ability enables it to do in seconds what now takes minutes for an aircraft navigator, it is hoped the study will benefit future air travel.

DeBaun Will Head Negro College

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Dr. Vincent C. De Baun is resigning as president of Lasell Junior College in Newton to become a professor at a Negro college in Alabama.

De Baun, 42, said the move is his answer to the question, "What can we do to fight racial injustice and increase interracial understanding?"

His decision is the second such action by a white educator in the Boston area in 16 months. In March 1967, John U. Munro resigned as dean of Harvard College to become director of freshman studies at Miles College, Birmingham, Ala.

De Baun said in an interview, "My wife and I estimate that

Appeal in Hawkins Case Indicated

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — Richard S. Arnold of Texarkana, attorney for the plaintiffs in a taxpayers suit that made Sheriff Marlin Hawkins pay $10,082 to the Conway County treasury, filed notice of appeal Tuesday.

Arnold has 60 days in which to prepare the appeal for the state Supreme Court.

Arnold said the appeal would be based on a ruling by Circuit Judge Bobby Steel of Nashville that more than half of the period covered by the taxpayers' complaint was barred by the statute of limitations.

The portion of the suit that was tried claimed Hawkins failed to legally account for $63,299 in public funds while acting as sheriff from 1963-66.

The suit originally said Hawkins had misappropriated more than $200,000 in 1954 through 1966, but Steel ruled that the years prior to 1963 were excluded by the statute of limitations.

Steel ruled July 8 that Hawkins had failed to legally account for $10,082 of the $63,000 he handled in 1963 through 1966 and ordered the sheriff to pay that sum.

Hawkins paid the $10,082 after Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller declared that he considered the sheriff's position vacant in view of the judgment against Hawkins. Rockefeller named a sheriff but withdrew his nomination after Hawkins paid the sum.

Arkansas Killed in Missouri

PACIFIC, Mo. (AP) — Paul Eugene Pippinger, 24, a native of Newport, Ark., was killed Monday when his car left Missouri 44 about two miles from Pacific.

Pippinger was stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. Authorities said the car went off the shoulder and struck a bridge railing. Pippinger was thrown from the vehicle.

Socials Are Planned for Conventions

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Social activities ranging from breakfasts to fancy parties will be in the political arsenals of the contenders for the Republican presidential nomination at the party's convention next week.

In their efforts to gain the nomination, the GOP campaigners have appointed social directors to provide hospitality to the 2,666 delegates and alternates at the Miami Beach convention.

If a delegate works at it he could spend the entire week receiving everything from his morning orange juice to his evening dinner and drinks, with entertainment thrown in, all without spending his own money.

Richard Nixon's social leader is Patricia Reilly Hitt, official hostess at the 1964 GOP convention in San Francisco. She now is co-chairman of the Nixon for President Committee.

The Nelson A. Rockefeller party and entertainment director is Bertha Adkins, an Oxford, Md., resident who was an undersecretary of Health, Education and Welfare in the Eisenhower administration.

Mrs. Johnson Sees Vote as a New Trend

By PETE YOUNG
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — "A cliffhanger" predicted by gubernatorial candidate Ted Boswell developed in Tuesday's Democratic primary between Boswell and Mrs. Virginia Johnson for the No. 2 runoff spot.
Boswell and Mrs. Johnson exchanged the lead with a regularity neither candidate cared for, while Rep. Marlon Crank moved comfortably into the Democratic runoff Aug. 13.
Mrs. Johnson, the first woman to seek the governorship in Arkansas, said with tears in her eyes that her strength had set a trend for women in politics in the state.
Mrs. Johnson and her husband, Jim, who ran unsuccessfully for governor in 1966 and was defeated Tuesday in his bid for the U.S. Senate nomination, appeared briefly before the public but limited their remarks to thanking their supporters.
Boswell, a 35-year-old attorney from Bryant, spent the evening in his hotel suite surrounded by his family and supporters, who gathered election tallies from television reports.
Boswell, the "reform candidate" who gained strength in the waning days before the primary, was pleased with his showing but didn't know how well he was doing.
"I don't know enough about politics to know what to expect," Boswell said. "We'll probably know tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon. I think we won."
Mrs. Johnson would make no predictions and remained phlegmatic as the vote-tide shifted many times during the evening.
Early in the evening, former Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, a candidate for the Democratic nomination, ran second in the voting, as did Frank Whitbeck, an Little Rock insurance executive, for awhile.
Bennett finished fourth, Whitbeck fifth and former state Sen. Clyde Byrd was a poor last as the vote count neared the end.
Boswell said he was not sure whether he would ask for a recount if the final tally was close and in favor of Mrs. Johnson.
successor, meaning one that has been approved by the Senate.
Warren says he will stay on if Fortas, an associate justice since 1965, is rejected.

Fortas voted with the majority in reversing a lower court decision that "0.7" was obscene.

tions will never be confirmed," said Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., Tuesday about the nomination of Abe Fortas as chief justice and Homer Thornberry as an associate justice. Griffin said 40 senators now oppose the two.
He did not name the senators who he claims have increased the opposition strength from the original 19.
Griffin and his allies have threatened a filibuster against the appointments and it would take a two-thirds vote to shut off their debate. Griffin needs to muster at least 34 members to vote against choking off the filibuster.
Griffin commented in a speech to the National Press Club while members of the Senate Judiciary Committee gathered in secret in the Senate's basement recording studio to view three films which one called "hardcore pornography" and another labeled "crude vulgarity."
The question of pornography has taken center stage in the drawn-out hassling over Fortas' nomination to succeed Earl Warren. One Republican has charged on the Senate floor that Fortas' votes on obscenity have helped "destroy community morals" in the United States.
Congress recesses Friday for the two national political conventions, returning in September. There appears to be no chance for action on the nominations until then, although committee Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., called a meeting today to consider the Fortas appointment.
The committee has put off any action on Thornberry's nomination until after the Senate confirms or denies Fortas.
President Johnson has accepted Warren's retirement effective upon selection of a qualified
